AND PROCLAMATION

Comes now, at least two affirmed American Nationals for The United States of America, the Confederacy United States to petition the United States, in Congress assembled to proclaim the existence of Human Rights Violations committed against the Universal Declaration on Human Rights agreed upon on the 10th of December, 1948.

“The committee of the county government assemblies shall be authorized to execute, in the recess of the United States, in Congress assembled, such of the powers of the United States, in Congress assembled, as the United States, in Congress assembled, by the consent of the county government assemblies, shall from time to time think expedient to vest them with; provided that no power be delegated to the said committee, over the Grantors, the people for The United States of America”.

The committee for the Government of The United States of America hereby convenes on April 25th, 2014 to proclaim the existence of Human Rights Violations by Harry Reid and immediate family et al, against Cliven Bundy and immediate family between the dates of on or about the 9th of April 2014 to present day.

IT IS PROCLAIMED that Harry Reid and immediate family, Douglas C. Gillespie and immediate family, Ochs-Sulzberger family (owners of The New York Times), Morris Dees and immediate family, the Southern Poverty Law Center, the Federal Aviation Administration and the Department of Homeland Security did knowingly and without regard for human life violate multiple articles of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, labeling the Bundy family and his supporters as Domestic Terrorists thereby committing the acts of attempted murder, conspiracy to commit murder and conspiracy to commit mass murder, and

Article 3 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights:

“Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person”.

3. APRIL 17, 2014, 3:55 PM EDT
Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (D-NV) on Thursday called Nevada rancher Cliven Bundy and his supporters "domestic terrorists" at an event sponsored by the Las Vegas Review-Journal, according to reporter Jon Ralston.
4. “It’s obvious that you can’t just walk away from this. And we can speculate all we want to speculate to what’s going to happen next,” Reid told KSNV-TV. “But I don’t think it’s going to be tomorrow that something is going to happen, but something will happen. We are a nation of laws, not of men and women.”

Violations by Federal Aviation Administration:

1. FAA issues “No Fly Zone” over Bundy Ranch area.

Article 12 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary interference with his privacy, family, home or correspondence, nor to attacks upon his honour and reputation. Everyone has the right to the protection of the law against such interference or attacks.

Violations by Harry Reid and immediate family:

1. Las Vegas, NV– Nevada Senator Harry Reid released the following statement today on racist comments by Cliven Bundy reported by the New York Times.

“I used to live in North Las Vegas and it is home to some of the hardest-working people I have ever met – men and women who embody the American dream by working hard every day to build a better life for themselves and their families. By contrast, Cliven Bundy has spent decades profiting off government land while refusing to pay the same fair use fees as his fellow ranchers. Today, Bundy revealed himself to be a hateful racist. But by denigrating people who work hard and play by the rules while he mooches off public land he also revealed himself to be a hypocrite.

“To advance his extreme, hateful views, Bundy has endangered the lives of innocent women and children. This is not a game. It is the height of irresponsibility for any individual or entity in a position of power or influence to glorify or romanticize such a dangerous individual, and anyone who has done so should come to their senses and immediately condemn Bundy. For their part, national Republican leaders could help show a united front against this kind of hateful, dangerous extremism by publicly condemning Bundy.

Violations by Douglas C. Gillespie and Homeland Security

A new study funded by the Department of Homeland Security characterizes Americans who are “suspicious of centralized federal authority,” and “reverent of individual liberty” as “extreme right-wing” terrorists

Article 17 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

- (1) Everyone has the right to own property alone as well as in association with others.
- (2) No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his property.

Violations by Harry Reid and immediate family:

1. “A BLM spokesman confirmed Thursday that two bulls had been killed during the agency’s weeklong roundup, which ended Saturday with an armed standoff between supporters of rancher Cliven Bundy and federal agents. The two bulls posed “a safety hazard,” said BLM spokesman Craig Leff, who didn’t elaborate on the circumstances.”
2. Speaking of copyright, by killing the bulls, they were trying to take out the "brand" which is the private property of Cliven Bundy:

Quote:

A deputy brand inspector from Las Vegas said the bulls “might have got frightened, but that’s no reason to shoot a bull.”

Occasionally they charge people, and “sometimes they charge horseback riders,” said Don Bamberry, a deputy brand inspector the Nevada Department of Agriculture, who wasn’t at the scene.

Bamberry said it would “take a pretty good-size weapon” to kill the special breed bulls that Bundy owns.

Bundy’s state brand certificate, which expires Dec. 31, 2015, is a “V over O” on the hip of his cattle.

Bamberry said in a typical cow-shooting situation, any violation would depend on if the animal had a brand.

“Was it somebody else’s property, which is worth a lot of money?” Bamberry said.

He said a bull that is 4 or 5 years old would weigh between 1,200 to 1,500 pounds.

On the local market, a bull that size would be worth more than $2,500 based on the retail price of $4.29 per pound for a side of beef.

BLM officials have not said whether the bulls that were euthanized had Bundy’s brand or any brand.

Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

WHEREAS just because Mr. Bundy showed poor judgment in discussing his personal views on certain sensitive topics in a public forum, mainly attempting to bring the different races in America together does not mean he should be murdered for it. The aforementioned families and entities purposely distorted the intent of the statements made by Cliven Bundy. You shall judge a man by his works and the only interaction of Mr. Bundy with the people he is being accused of being racist against is witnessed by the people to be one of kindness and respect.

In conclusion of this Report and Proclamation, there is a plan in place which is more diabolical than just a rancher in Nevada from an older generation. It is suspected by the committee of the Government of The United States of America that all of the parties in Violation are actually pushing a communist revolution on American Soil. In the opinion of the committee, any kind of revolution being hidden with certain code words are actually against the United States in whatever form the United States takes by using the term “United Front” which has been classified as:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/United_front
<http://www.wnd.com/2014/04/harrys-war/#52RJ4HKMsoa6AqZe.99>

Although to fight against racism and terrorism is an honorable position to take publicly, these violators of Human Rights use the aforementioned positions to push a particular violent political cause which diminishes the fight against racism and terrorism altogether. To diminish the fight against racism and terrorism to a point of indifference of its merits does not stop racism and terrorism, it actually perpetuates racism and terrorism which is the true political revolution being perpetrated by the aforementioned Human Rights Violators.

ter-ror-ism (tər'ēr-izm). n. a system of government by methods which excite fear; a revolt against government, in which the methods used excite fear.

Acknowledged and Affirmed on this day of April 25, 2014.
